

NASHVILLE RECORDING ARTIST TO APPEAR

From a Nova Scotia fishing village to the Grand Ole Opry!!

Crystal Taylor grew up in a Nova Scotia fishing village in Canada, moved west and married as a young woman. She has in recent years begun an exciting career in the field of Country and Southern Gospel music. Crystal Taylor has sung all her life – first singing country music as a child after her conversion – seeking to find songs to glorify her Lord and Savoir Jesus Christ.

Over twenty years ago she began singing her own compositions and her career has begun to take off. Crystal has performed on concert programs with the likes of Susie Luchsinger (Reba McIntyre's sister and a respected country gospel artist in her right), Joanne Cash Yates, (sister of Johnny Cash), and Larry Ford (Singer on the Gaither videos) and others.

Her twelve C. D's, which are played on selected radio stations worldwide, have been recorded in Nashville and most of her musicians have been or are regular's players on the Grand Ole Opry. Crystal has headlined a number of "Cowboy Church" specials in Alberta and Nashville, sung on the Grand Ole Opry, (Grand Ole Gospel Hour) and sung in the Calgary Stampede parade and a whole bunch more, all for Jesus. Her ministry has graduated from being a part-time job to a full-time ministry to glorify Jesus Christ.

Crystal has been touring Canada and the U.S. extensively since 1994. Her singing is "CRYSTAL CLEAR" and a pleasure to hear and wherever she appears the question immediately asked, "When are you coming back?" She's back and will be blessing her fans and new listeners, travelling full-time with her husband who is powerful Evangelist willing and ready to be used by God as He wills.
