

Herb Taylor's Bio #1

Come and hear how a family headed for break up and ruin due to Alcohol and poverty was rescued and saved through a 6-year-old girl who invited Herb's little sister to Sunday School. How a lifetime of godlessness was replaced by changed lives in a matter of just a few weeks. How God brought forgiveness, physical healing, hope, and a new foundation for an entire family almost overnight!

Herb Taylor was the last to receive Jesus in his family but now travels the world with the message of Gods redeeming love and change. Come hear miracle stories how God ignited the entire family into full-time ministry over 24 years ago. How special things can take place in regular people who are willing to take a step of faith. Hear how his wife now is an award winning 12 times Nashville recording artist and songwriter and her music is played on selected radio stations worldwide.

Herb and Crystal have been married for over 40years now and it looks like there is no slowing down!

If you need a life change, a tune-up or even a physical healing, come to the meeting and hear what God can do through a couple of ordinary people who are willing to let God work through them. You take a step of faith and come and see what God can and will do for you.
