Crystal Clear MINISTRIES

Making the message of the Gospel Crystal Clear

Praise the Lord, what a time it has been!

Spring 2012

Acts 2:17 says, 'And it shall come to pass in the last days, says God, That I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh.'

This is what we see God doing and as we lift the name of Jesus in our services, we see God moving in a variety of ways; The lost are drawn to Jesus and the Holy Spirit is bringing many under conviction of their sins, and they repent and ask Jesus to come into their lives to be their Savior and Lord. God is at work and many are coming to Jesus!

John 12:32 says, "And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all peoples to Myself ."

JOHN 4:35 SAYS, "DO YOU NOT SAY,' THERE ARE STILL FOUR MONTHS AND THEN COMES THE HARVEST'? BEHOLD, I SAY TO YOU, LIFT UP YOUR EYES AND LOOK AT THE FIELDS, FOR THEY ARE ALREADY WHITE FOR HARVEST!"

We had the privilege to lead a number of people to Jesus one Thursday night at the Clearwater Cowboy Church in Dovercourt, Alberta, not far from Rocky Mountain House. Just a while ago, we attended one of the young girls' baptisms who received Jesus at one of our services. Praise the Lord, not only was she, but her mom and little brother too! Here are a few pictures. It was fun to be there for the celebration!

Crystal Clear MINISTRIES

While we were in Dovercourt we got to have our picture taken with some Rodeo Royalty, Miss Rodeo Canada 2012 - Arleta Bowhay, a bold Christian!

This year has been a little light as far as how much traveling we normally do. However God is in control and it is apparent to me why we have been home more than usual. There are things at home that needed our attention. Being a missionary is not just while we are preaching or singing, it is wherever God takes us, and whomever God brings in your path at any time or any place.

In February, we started our tour in Yorkton, Saskatchewan. In our first service, 120 people showed up at the local Legion to attend the Full Gospel Businessmen's Fellowship Banquet where at least seven gave their hearts to Jesus! These banquets are set up to invite the lost and for them to hear the testimony of a Christian man. I love the atmosphere at these events. It is one of excitement, and to see God move in such a powerful way is heart pounding!

We did a number of these meetings and in our second one in Sturgis, SK, fourteen or more gave their hearts to Jesus! One entire family - father, mother, son and his new wife. Praise the Lord! Forty percent of the crowd that attended that night came as lost souls, and many of them left as new creations in Christ.

After Sturgis, we dropped down to Moosomin, SK where another large crowd showed up with three or more deciding to follow Jesus. Along with people coming to Christ, we have many opportunities to pray for the saints of God for a variety of needs and requests - what a privilege!

Then off to Rossburn, Manitoba for more meetings, and at least five people came to Jesus and a number more rededicated their lives to Christ, no small thing!

This trip we chose not to take our motor home but to stay with friends and in a variety of hotels. The motor home is preferred, but it is not winterized and we cannot use it in the cold weather. Staying with people is fine but we seem to get less rest, and allergies is a big problem as most homes have pets and other things that Crystal is allergic to.

We also travelled to Kelowna, BC where Crystal took part in a function to raise funds for the West Kelowna Food Bank. It is always a privilege to do such events. We have fantastic friends in the Kelowna area, and friends, you know who you are! Really, everywhere we go God brings such great people across our path to love us and help us. Thank you. We love you so very much, all of you.

Everyone holding a Cowboy Bible has just received Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior!

We just had the opportunity to minister in our home church, Balmoral Bible Chapel, where Crystal and I are commissioned missionaries of the church.

For those who love to hear sermons you can go to the church website at www.balmoralchapel.ca - go to the link "Sermons" and you can search by name to access the messages preached recently. Of course, there are many available sermons by other preachers as well. Take a look and have some fun! May God bless you richly.

Praise and Prayer

Prayer

That God would lead people across our path who are ready to receive Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior

That we would walk in the anointing of God and that He would show His power through us His servants, filling us with the Holy Spirit and fire! And that our passion for Him would increase.

That more doors would open up for us to be the bearers of the Good News! Just not churches but venues of all sorts!

For booking coordinators (people lead by God to help us get into places to win the lost and be encouragers to the body of Christ!)

That we would be sensitive to the Holy Spirit's leading

That the Lord would inspire Crystal to write new songs to do a new recording

That more radio stations would play Crystal's music

For a bigger house for storage, office space, and an allergy free environment

Funds to re-order CD's

Funds to move ahead to stage two on the construction of our new web page

For adequate monthly support

To sell our motor home and get one that is winterized

To ask God to open up Europe to our ministry

In God's sovereignty, He knows whose names are in the Book of Life...

but I believe that the book is neither full nor done entering names. It says in Revelation 20:15, "And anyone not found written in the book of Life was cast into the lake of fire." What more could motivate us to go into the world to win the lost? Our priorities need to be in line with those of our Lord.

God, please help us grasp what you want us to do, in the short time we have on Earth to shine for you!

You can help us shine for God. You can help us have the tools we need to accomplish the task, to do it well and in a timely manner. When I say timely, I really mean NOW. The Word of God says, "today is the day of salvation." "For He says: 'In an acceptable time I have heard you, And in the day of salvation I have helped you.' Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation" (2 Cor. 6:2). Not tomorrow, not next week, or next month, but today, this time, this hour, this minute, this second!

One thing the church has perhaps forgotten is the urgency to win the lost, Don't you think? How many people do you know who lead people to Jesus, and on a regular basis? The fruit tells the truth. I'm not saying this to make anyone feel bad, but we need to be reminded and sometimes challenged that, quite possibly, our first love may not be the Lord. First loves bear much fruit. Who is your first love?

Who is this challenge for? First of all, it's for me. If you feel God speaking to you, then perhaps it is for you too. God bless you richly as you rise to His call!

Thank you...

for all of your support and prayers, God has given us a plentiful harvest of souls as you can see. What is really exciting is that the pictures you see are only some of the ones we see coming to Jesus. There are many more who give their hearts to God that we have not recorded, but God has them in the most important place, the Lamb's Book of Life!
